

Study Programme

General characteristics:

Name of the programme	Journalism and Social Communication
Level of studies	Ist degree, Bachelor degree
Profile	academic
Form of studies	Stationary study
Language of studies	English
Programme taught at a home campus or a branch campus	Main Campus
Professional title received upon graduation	Bachelor
Number of semesters	6
Number of ECTS points required to complete the degree	180
Total number of hours in the programme (excluding work placements)	1980
Leading discipline	communication and media studies
Percentage share of disciplines in the number of ECTS points required to complete the degree	communication and media studies: 85% linguistics: 5% economics and finance: 3% sociology: 3% political science and public administration: 2% law: 2%
Total number of ECTS points a student must obtain in classes taught by academic teachers or other instructors	151
The number of ECTS points a student must obtain in the humanities or social sciences	153
Work placements (number of hours and ECTS points); detailed rules and forms of work placements are specified in work-placement regulations	120h internship in different media offices, editorial offices, institutions 4 ECTS The rules and the form of placing the internship are contained in a separate document: annex no 11
Requirements for graduation	a) In the case of a Bachelor degree, it is necessary to submit a diploma paper and the diploma exam b) The form of diploma paper: individually developed scientific or practical issue, that presents general knowledge and practical skills that are provided in the Journalism and Social Communication Study Program on the 6 level of PRK, and also student's skills in individual analyzing and inferencing
Study programme for the cycle	2020/2021