

STRESZCZENIE W JĘZYKU ANGIELSKIM

Imię i nazwisko autora pracy Bartosz Nieścior
Tytuł pracy w języku polskim Odpowiedzialność dyscyplinarna urzędników skarbowych w międzywojennej Polsce
Tytuł pracy w języku angielskim Disciplinary liability of tax officials in interwar Poland
Streszczenie pracy w języku angielskim

The concept of disciplinary liability is associated primarily with groups of people who practice their profession in the public interest or other citizens. The introduced statutory regulations and internal regulations in given corporations are aimed at establishing a specific legal regime, which is to guarantee that such professions of high trust among the society, i.e. doctors or judges, were carried out with the utmost diligence and diligence. The subject of this dissertation is the issue of disciplinary liability of tax officials in the interwar period, i.e. from regaining independence until the end of the Second Polish Republic. The issue of disciplinary liability of tax officials in interwar Poland has not been investigated so far.

The first research goal that has been set is to present the process of establishing, and then the principles of the functioning of the legal system allowing for disciplinary liability of tax officials. The second research objective of the dissertation is to show what the disciplinary liability of tax officials in the Second Polish Republic looked like in practice.

The system of disciplinary liability of Polish tax officials established in the analyzed period, as a native and original solution, fulfilled its role, significantly contributing to the improvement of the quality of work of the title professional group.

Bartosz Nieścior